About ÉMUN

Welcome to the 6th Annual École Model United Nations Conference hosted by École Mondiale World School, Mumbai, India.

ÉMUN 2010 is scheduled to take place on the 18th, 19th and 20th of December 2010. Three days of skillful tact, effective diplomacy, breakthrough ideas and perceptive discussions on some of the most important and unresolved issues that challenge our world community.

This year, ÉMUN goes international, taking one step closer to becoming a true UN simulation. ÉMUN 2010 promises to take us all to the next level of deliberation, as we look forward to some great debate and dynamic committee sessions spearheaded by young diplomats, advocates, ambassadors and delegates from the world over.

Model United Nations has grown into an inextricable part of École Mondiale's spirit and culture. With an undying sense of commitment and enthusiasm, École has been actively represented and recognized at various prestigious national as well as international conferences. Conferences such as American International School Model United Nations in Egypt (AISMUN), St Petersburg International Model United Nations in Russia (SPIMUN) and Turkey International Model United Nations in Turkey (TIMUN) are few of the prestigious conferences that École has been fortunate to make valuable contributions to. It is with this very dedication, experience and passion for MUN that we bring to you the 6th Annual International École Model United Nations Conference.

Modeled along the lines of the THIMUN procedure, the committees at ÉMUN 2010 include the Security Council (SC), the Disarmament and International Security Committee (DISEC), the Human Rights Council (HRC), the Economic and Social Committee (ECOSOC) and the International Court of Justice (ICJ). The committees at ÉMUN 2010 will be chaired by a team of very experienced, driven and talented students. It is their guidance and expertise that will motivate the delegates at ÉMUN 2010 to realize their full potential as they strive to truly "Initiate. Innovate. Inspire."

We envisage an ÉMUN 2010 that will not only prove to be a highly enriching and stimulating MUN conference but also an unforgettable experience that will foster long-lasting bonds and leave behind indelible memories for all our delegates.

We welcome you all to ÉMUN 2010 as we gear up to face world issues and tackle international diplomacy with an unprecedented fearlessness, originality and zeal.

ÉMUN 2010 awaits you all.

From the Desk of the Secretary General

Dear Principals, MUN Directors, Teachers and Delegates,

“When we are no longer able to change a situation, we are challenged to change ourselves.”
-Victor Frankl

As a world community, we come face to face with issues and situations that often require an intrinsic change in attitudes, opinions and perspectives, that can then be transformed into actions. At ÉMUN 2010, we recognize that at times, some of the most complex world issues need to be addressed with unparalleled ingenuity and fearlessness.

The ingenuity that we as young delegates can bring to discussions and committee sessions. The fearlessness to implement change and take risks in decision- making.

But most importantly, the unwavering belief in our larger goal of world peace, security and strengthened diplomatic relations.

It is with this conviction that we place the onus of development in the hands of the youth as we aspire to achieve our motto: “Initiate. Innovate. Inspire.”

On that note, it is with great honour and enthusiasm that I present to you École Mondiale World School’s – École Model United Nations Conference, 2010.

As Secretary General, I consider myself extremely fortunate to be able to translate my passion, dedication and talent for debating into an integral part of ÉMUN 2010, with the support and participation of our MUN Council.

It is also with great pride that I would like to inform you all that this year, ÉMUN will see the coming together of delegates not only from some of the most experienced and prestigious institution from across India, but also from schools and colleges across the globe. This year, ÉMUN goes international! And it would be our utmost privilege to play host to your institutions as we together make ÉMUN 2010 a force to be reckoned with.

On behalf of the École Mondiale World School and our entire MUN team, I invite you all to embark on this journey of excellence, creativity, empowerment and resolution with us.

Delegates, ÉMUN awaits your ideas, talent, energy and dedication towards solving some of the most pressing world issues in a way that will compel us all to stop and admire.

I look forward to your participation at ÉMUN 2010!

Thank you,

Devika Luniya

Secretary General
École Model United Nations (ÉMUN) 2010
